

LEADERSHIP & MANAGEMENT

QNET presents:

Strategic Planning: From Vision to Action

Thursday, February 23, 2012 – 8:15 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.

This workshop provides an overview of the strategic planning process for developing or revitalizing the organization. Learn about life cycles and planning, virtual planning, levels of planning (from the boardroom to the frontline), vision to action planning, implementation issues and challenges, and the concept of leading for change/ managing for stability. You will also:

- Understand what strategic planning is and why we do it
- Determine when and where to do strategic planning
- Decide who should be involved and proceed step-by-step through the process
- Learn four different models for strategic planning
- Apply the models at the individual, work group and organizational level

Facilitator: Al Holmes of SEQUUS is a management trainer, designer, consultant, evaluator, writer, and strategic planning facilitator. He has more than 25 years experience in the business either in his own consulting firm, in partnership with others or in association with the Manitoba Institute of Management.

This workshop is:

- An optional course in the 70 credit hour Certificate in Management Development (CMD)
- Eligible for credit in the CAM:OE (Certificate in Applied Management: Organizational Effectiveness) in partnership with the University of Manitoba Continuing Education

This session is presented in partnership with Industry Workforce Development, Manitoba Entrepreneurship Training and Trade
