

LEADERSHIP & MANAGEMENT

QNET presents:

Risk Management

Tuesday, November 5, 2013 – 8:15 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.

Location: QNET – Suite 660, 175 Hargrave Street, Winnipeg

Risk has a significant impact on the business enterprise and project work. Understanding the business enterprise risk shortcomings and learning how to identify risks, assess the impacts and probability, and determine the appropriate course of action will positively impact your organization.

In this one-day workshop, learn to apply risk analysis and enterprise thinking to create a risk plan and matrix. You will:

- Understand risk management principles and enterprise considerations.
- Embrace Risk Tolerance Levels and relate them to your organization.
- Build a risk management plan based on best practices.
- Learn to identify, qualify and quantify, respond and monitor and control risks.
- Establish a response plan for selected risks.

Participants will be provided with tools and templates that can be used for risk analysis and establishing risk solutions. Activities will be used to reinforce learning through active participation and leveraging a business case scenario for the creation of a Risk Management Plan and Risk Matrix.

Facilitator: Richard Lannon has over 25 years of professional experience in strategic planning, business improvement and organizational transformation. He excels in helping businesses take a structured approach to engage their people and transform their business environment. Richard has successfully contributed to many small, mid-range and large businesses enterprises in Canada, the United States and the United Kingdom, and is an award-winning business trainer, strategic mentor and consultant.

This workshop is:

- An optional course in the 70 credit hour QNET Certificate in Management Development (CMD)
- Eligible for credit in the CAM:OE (Certificate in Applied Management: Organizational Effectiveness) in partnership with the University of Manitoba, Continuing Education

This session is presented in partnership with APICS Winnipeg Chapter and Industry Workforce Development, Manitoba Entrepreneurship Training and Trade
