QNET presents:

Business Unusual: A Novel Approach for a Changing World

Monday, December 2, 2013 – 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. – Luncheon Presentation

Location: QNET - Suite 660, 175 Hargrave Street, Winnipeg

"Business as usual" is disintegrating. A quick scan of leading news stories reflects the need for changing the way we work and live. Rising stress levels, decreasing productivity and growing disengagement, assure it's time to innovate.

The good news is we are at a point of converging what isn't working with what is. We are all co-creators. We are all connected. We are all leaders.

For these times when business is "unusual", discover the keys to co-creating happy, healthy, humane places to live and work.

At this luncheon session, you will:

- Reflect on how work is evolving.
- Explore how our connection to each other impacts our work performance.
- Understand why viewing ourselves as co-creators and leaders is necessary for surviving and thriving.
- Learn about a new methodology to facilitate Business Unusual in your organization.

Presenters: Deri Latimer, BMgt, CSP is an expert in positive possibilities for people! She is one of fewer than 10% of speakers globally who hold the designation of CSP (Certified Speaking Professional). Deri combines a business degree in human resources management with 20 years of experience engaging audiences across every sector. Deri provides inspiration and information to create psychologically healthy organizations for increased positivity, productivity, and profitability!

Helen Maupin, MA, transforms individuals, enterprises and communities through collaborative, engaging system and process design. She enables clients to balance a quadruple bottom line--people, purpose, planet and prosperity by facilitating whole person and whole system transformation into sustainable outcomes. As a coach, consultant, writer and speaker, Helen has an uncanny ability to see what lies around the corner in business.
