Have you ever wondered how you have changed since taking the EQ-i 2.0 survey and attending the Emotional Intelligence workshop?

Many who have taken the Emotional Intelligence workshop, have asked how they might take the survey again. We are now offering this possibility with the EQ-i 2.0 Survey Re-take workshop.

This workshop is intended for those who have previously completed the EQ-I 2.0 survey and attended the one day workshop, Emotional Intelligence: Achieving Personal and Organizational Success.

Workshop Objective: Compare your current results with your past survey results and develop action plans for increased effectiveness both personally and professionally.

- Complete the EQ-i 2.0 survey prior to the workshop.
- Review the 15 skills for success.
- Review your new EQ-i 2.0 Workplace Report, comparing the results to your previous Workplace Report.
- Review tools and strategies to enhance your Emotional Intelligence.
- Identify your three strengths and three areas for development and select one key skill to focus on for increased success both personally and professionally.
