

QUEST SERIES

QNET presents:

Meaningful Conversations and Other Positive Networking Tips

Wednesday, December 2, 2009 – 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Networking with others is a critical component in our quest for individual and organizational performance excellence. It can take place anytime or anywhere – whether you are at a training event, in a meeting or simply having a casual conversation.

Join us as we discover the different ways we network and learn from one another, and why those connections can make a profound difference. Learn how to stop fearing that next networking opportunity.

Learning Objectives – after this session you will walk away with:

- Stronger knowledge of the different kinds of networking.
- Tips to make networking fun and easy.
- An understanding of how to be prepared for all networking situations.
- Steps to having meaningful conversations that encourage learning, sharing and ongoing communication.
- Laugh lines and smiles that will have people asking you “where have you just been?” Your response, “networking”.

Presenter: Heather Racano, Artful Speaking (www.artfulspeaking.com)

Heather is an award winning speaker and coach who has spent the last 5 years dedicated to getting others sharing their voice in the boardroom, on stage and even at the water cooler. Her passion for speaking has led her into a career of professional speaking and speech coaching providing insightful, motivational, enthusiastic and fun seminars for audiences North America wide.

QUEST is a series of information sessions that bridge the gap between business needs and local consulting expertise. Presentations feature a variety of concepts, tools and practices relevant for today's workplace.
