

QNET presents:

Engage! The Leader’s Role in Employee Engagement

Thursday, January 22, 2009 – 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Theory meets practice in this informative presentation on Employee Engagement. Getty, a business trainer, and Darryl, a business owner, discuss the single most important factor for creating a more productive, enjoyable and engaging workplace – You, the Leader. This session will challenge participants to consider their commitment to being an engaged leader, and offer proven strategies for engaging employees that can be put into practice immediately. Managers and executives will find this an interesting, refreshing and practical session.

Learning Objectives:

Through interactive discussions and a helpful handout, participants will:

- Evaluate their current level of commitment to being an engaged leader
- Select one key area they can improve on to become a more engaging leader
- Implement techniques to help them focus on their best employees and make work personal

Presenters:

Darryl Stewart is an engineer turned entrepreneur, leading his company, IBEX Payroll - a payroll outsourcing and human resources software company recently named Manitoba’s 15th fastest growing company. He is relentless in his pursuit to grow the company while ensuring a remarkable workplace culture where employees feel engaged and excited about the company.

Getty Stewart of Pursuit Communications, is a professional speaker, trainer, and consultant, specializing in leadership and communication since 1997. She is currently consulting with IBEX to turn the theory of employee engagement into reality.

QUEST is a series of information sessions that bridge the gap between business needs and local consulting expertise. Presentations feature a variety of concepts, tools and practices relevant for today’s workplace.
