

LEADERSHIP & MANAGEMENT

QNET presents:

Igniting Corporate Spirit, Understanding Self / Understanding Others

Wednesday, June 3, 2009 – 8:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Learn how to improve personal effectiveness through understanding self, and building team effectiveness through understanding others. This one day workshop provides you an opportunity to build personal and team effectiveness through an exploration of personal preferences, communication skills, strengths and possible opportunities unique to us.

You will be provided a comprehensive personal Insights Discovery Profile that will be used throughout the workshop. Your profile is confidential and will not be shared with anyone but you. You will discover the value you bring to your team, and how you can enhance the value in others.

Workshop agenda includes:

- The power of perception
- Four color energies - strengths and weaknesses, gifts and liabilities
- Preferences – how we express ourselves, make decisions, take in and process information
- Dealing with blind spots, adapting and connecting
- Recognizing type – body language, verbal clues, environment
- Value to the team – characteristics of winning teams
- Communication, stress, goal setting

Facilitator: Yvonne Thompson, Principal Consultant, Change Innovators Inc.

Yvonne Thompson has been a business leader and human resource specialist for over 15 years. Her company Change Innovators specializes in organizational wellness, leadership and change management.
