

LEADERSHIP & MANAGEMENT

QNET presents:

Building High Performance Teams

Tuesday, April 7, 2009 – 8:15 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.

Teams and teamwork represent very powerful mechanisms for getting results and achieving significant change in organizations. In fact, teams have become the new organizational unit. This workshop will help you be an effective team member, facilitator or leader. You will gain an understanding of work teams and learning teams, and explore the concept of self-managing teams. Learn how teams develop and grow, how to sustain a team, how to deal with team decline, and when teams are not advisable.

Workshop outline:

- Introduction to teams and the “work” of teams
- Stages of team development
- Skills for team members and skills for the team leader
- Team problem-solving and decision making, team game

Facilitator: Al Holmes of SEQUUS is a management trainer, designer, consultant, evaluator, writer, and strategic planning facilitator. He has more than 25 years experience in the business either in his own consulting firm, in partnership with others, or with the Manitoba Institute of Management.

This workshop is:

- An optional course in the 70 credit hour Certificate in Management Development (CMD)
- Eligible for credit in the CAM:OE (Certificate in Applied Management: Organizational Effectiveness) in partnership with the University of Manitoba Continuing Education
