

QNET presents:

Navigating the Road to Organizational Wellness

Thursday, March 19, 2009 – 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

The hidden costs of an unhealthy workforce can be staggering. Costs associated with extended healthcare claims, disability claims, absenteeism, and presenteeism are all related to the health of employees. Learn a proactive approach that employers can use to uncover and control these costs, and most importantly, improve the productivity, morale and overall health of employees. Business owners, managers, and human resource professionals will benefit from this informative session.

Learning Objectives:

At this presentation, participants will:

- Become aware of the costs to an organization due to poor physical and mental health of employees
- Learn about solutions available to employers

Presenter: Tricia Johnston is a Consultant with STRATA Benefits Consulting Inc., a Manitoba owned employee benefit consulting firm that specializes in the design, pricing and management of employee benefit plans for organizations of all sizes. At STRATA, Tricia assists clients to develop and implement benefit strategies that support business and human resources strategies, including organizational wellness analysis and initiatives.

QUEST is a series of information sessions that bridge the gap between business needs and local consulting expertise. Presentations feature a variety of concepts, tools and practices relevant for today's workplace.
