QNET presents:

Practical Workshop Facilitation Skills

Friday, January 28, 2011 – 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m.

This highly interactive breakfast information session offers participants the opportunity to:

- Sample a variety of facilitation / learning activities that provide ways of effectively reducing or eliminating the impact of common negative attitudes demonstrated by workshop participants.
- Learn proven techniques that ensure participant involvement and increase motivation.
- Learn to minimize the challenge of being viewed as the only source of expertise.

QNET presents Facilitation Fundamentals - March 3 and 4, 2011 with Ron Bartlette. Details here.

Facilitator: Ron Bartlette is founder and Executive Director of the Winnipeg Transition Centre. Ron's extensive experience in the Employment Counseling field includes group and individual counseling and the development of the Career and Employment Coach Certificate, which he delivers across Canada. Ron is also an accomplished workshop facilitator and has developed a highly successful Practical Workshop Facilitation Skills Certificate which he offers to facilitators and other professionals throughout Canada.

Presented in partnership with Industry Workforce Development, Manitoba Entrepreneurship Training and Trade
